MEMORY POEM

1. Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening

Whose woods these are I think I know. His house is in the village though; He will not see me stopping here To watch his woods fill up with snow.

My little horse must think it queer To stop without a farmhouse near Between the woods and frozen lake The darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness bells a shake To ask if there is some mistake. The only other sound's the sweep Of easy wind and downy flake.

The woods are lovely, dark and deep. But I have promises to keep, And miles to go before I sleep, And miles to go before I sleep.

-Robert Frost

5. The River

River, river, little river! Bright you sparkle on your way; O'er the yellow pebbles dancing, Through the flowers and foliage glancing, Like a child at play.

River, river! Swelling river! On you rush through rough and smooth; Louder, faster, brawling, leaping. Over rocks, by rose-banks, sweeping Like impetuous youth.

River, river! Brimming river! Broad and deep, and still as time; Seeming still, yet still in motion, Tending onward to the ocean, Just like mortal prime.

River, river! Headlong river! Down you dash into the sea, Sea that line hath never sounded, Sea that sail hath never rounded, Like eternity.

-Caroline Ann Bowles

3. On Killing a Tree

It takes much time to kill a tree, Not a simple jab of the knife Will do it. It has grown Slowly consuming the earth, Rising out of it, feeding Upon its crust, absorbing Years of sunlight, air, water, And out of its leperous hide Sprouting leaves.

So hack and chop But this alone wont do it. Not so much pain will do it. The bleeding bark will heal And from close to the ground Will rise curled green twigs, Miniature boughs Which if unchecked will expand again To former size.

> -Gieve Patel *2 Stanzas only

6. The Comet

Rampaging through the heavens Never stopping day or night, A spectacle of a lifetime A comet in full flight.

Faster than a cheetah With a tail that's miles long, Bigger than a mountain So powerful and strong.

The outer ice is melting Causing vapor from the force, And leaves a trail behind it As it travels on its course.

> -Norman Littleford -*3 Stanzas only

1. 'Achrekar was a sincere coach'. Substantiate.

	Lesson	: Learning the Game
_	Author	: Sachin Tendulkar
	Theme	: Farsightedness of a coach

Ramkant Achrekar was a cricket coach in Shardashram Vidhyamandir in Mumbai. He ran summer camps too. He agreed to let Sachin join his summer camp. He identified the potential of Sachin to be a good cricketer. He suggested Sachin's father to change his school. His act with the one rupee coin taught Sachin how to concentrate even when physically drained. He advised Sachin, "Don't waste your time playing insane games with these kids. Cricket is waiting for you at the nets. Practice hard and see what magic can transpire." "If you practiced hard enough, one day people from across the world would come and watch you play." His summer sessions used to start at 7.30 am and end at 4.30 pm. His evening session would start at 5 pm after 30 minutes break. Between 5 pm and 7 pm he would have 5 more net sessions. After practice Sachin would be exhausted by the end of the day. The act of conductors embarrassed him in the bus. It was all a great learning experience.

Moral: Hardwork never fails

3. Quote the sentences which you find most inspiring from 'Learning the Game.' How do they inspire you? Explain.

The sentences which I find most inspiring from 'Learning the Game' are "We need proper career orientation. Your personality plays an important role in choosing the type of career you want. Choose something you enjoy and really want to do and you will be successful." It is really true. We should be very careful in choosing our career. For that we should have proper career orientation from the seniors like our parents, teachers, specialists and friends. Along with that we should enjoy whatever we do. Otherwise life will become a tragedy. If we do what we love to do, our life will be successful. Eventhough there may be a few difficulties occur in that, we can manage it with confidence.

PARAGRAPH FOR LATE BLOOMERS

- Ramkant Achrekar was a cricket coach in Mumbai.

SPEAKING

I. Just a minute (TB-8)

Given below are five main qualities for true sportsmanship.

Get into groups of four. Each group will choose one quality to talk about to the whole class for about one minute. But before you talk, you have two minutes to think about it. You can make notes if you wish.

- i. Determination It is a positive emotional feeling. It is an act of officially deciding something. Many people succeed because of their strong determination. It involves pursuing a difficult goal in spite of obstacles. We must possess this quality to achieve our goal.
- ii. Optimisation It is the action of making the best or most effective use of a situation or resources. We don't get what we need often. Those times we should think about the sources available in and around our environment and make use of it to the fullest.
- iii. Stamina It means physical strength or staying power. It is very important to all of us to do our work for a long time. Especially sports people need this quality a lot. It purely deals with our body. It is our duty to keep it fit and strong.
- iv. Perseverance Most of us lack this quality now a day. It is not possible always to get what we desire or to achieve at the earliest. Many obstacles chase us wherever and whenever we go out of our home. We should face that with perseverance.
- v. Decisiveness We should make our choices quickly and confidently. We are living in the world of communication. We are running short of time to sit and decide all. In many personal interviews people are unable to get a job due to lack of making choices quickly and confidently.
- J. Prepare a speech in about 80-100 words for the morning assembly, stressing on the importance of games and sports in ensuring a healthy body and mind.

IMPORTANCE OF GAMES AND SPORTS

Sports and games are very important to everyone. It helps us to develop the habit of cooperation. Apart from this, it helps us to keep ourselves fit. It increases self confidence, leadership quality and sharing. Reading and writing alone is not education. Education is the development of both mental and physical growth. Books help us to be knowledgeable. Games help us to be fit. Everyone should play a game at least half an hour every day. If we regularly do this, diseases won't affect us.

In Tamil Nadu, a very interesting form of recitation named Villupattu developed (a) during the 15th century. Villupattu means bow-song because a bow-shaped musical instrument (b) with strong high tension string is used (c) for placing it (d) in an earthen pitcher. It is believed that this narrative form was an invention (e) of Arasa Pulavar. The troupe gives its performance mostly (f) during temple festivals. There are seven to eight persons in a troupe who form a kind (g) of chorus that supports the main singernarrator. When the chief narrator sings, the chorus takes (h) out the refrain (i) of the song and repeates it in unison. The whole party sits (j) in the ground and performs (k) on a lot (1) of gesticulation and facial expression to suit the narrative they have taken. The ballad style songs are composed (m) of the rural dialect which appeals (n) to the audience who sometimes join the troupe (o) with suitable notes or words.

Fairs and festivals form an integral part of the culture of Tamil Nadu. They are an excellent platform to promote and preserve the vibrant art and culture of the Tamils.

A thiruvizha (festival) is a source of excitement and thrill for villagers. The village thoroughfare wears a festive look, as the open spaces are cleaned, spruced up and decorated (a) with colourful streamers.

People throng the premises (b) to catch a glimpse (c) of their village deity (d) on a magnificently decorated chariot, and pay their respects. There is a big crowd (e) in the food stalls that serve free piping hot sakkaraipongal (sweet pongal), lemon rice and curd rice.

People (f) from nearby villages and towns display their wares attractively, and call out loudly (g) to the people (h) to buy their wares. Cotton candy, cut raw mangoes smothered (i) with salt and chilly powder, boiled groundnuts, murukku, sweets, buttermilk etc are sold. Men, women, grandmas, grandpas and little children dressed (i) in their best clothes, enjoy the Thiruvizha greatly.

You can hear the shrieks (k) of happy children enjoying the rides on ferris wheels and carousels, elders looking (l) at each other with smiles on their faces.

The entire day is spent  $(\underline{m})$  on fun and gaiety. All the village people irrespective of their age, look forward  $(\underline{n})$  to the thiruvizha every year.

Bommalattam on 'Child Labour'. (TB-17) Once, there was a child named Ram who lived in a village called Allur. The child worked in a small restaurant near his village. Ram's family was not affluent. His father used to drink a lot and his mother begged in the streets. He had a sister who wanted to study in school but she couldn't as they had no money. All the burdens of his family were put on Ram but he never lost hope and worked hard every day. He always believed that one day he would make his family proud.

He worked hard every day until he got enough money to feed his family. But his job was not good enough. Many years passed this way and he was only able to provide food to his family but any other need could not be fulfilled. One day he went to work as usual and while he was returning from work, he saw an old man coughing and he was lying on the floor and unable to walk. As he was very caring, he went to the old man to help him walk. The old man was very happy and he suddenly changed into a God and he told the boy that he was very kind and that he would be tested before he would be granted any wish that he wanted to see fulfilled. The old man suddenly disappeared.

The next day while Ram was going work, he saw a young girl who was sad as she wanted a chocolate from the shop but was not able to buy it because she didn't have any money. That was the day Ram would receive his salary. He bought the young girl a chocolate. Suddenly the old man appeared again and said that he had passed in the first test and now he had to be ready for the second test. He disappeared this time too.

A few days later when Ram came to work, he saw a child lying on the road who was starving and on the brink of death. Ram was confused because he had to pay his electricity bill that day, but he also wanted to help the child. So he paid his electricity bill and with the money that was left he bought food for the boy. The old man appeared again and told Ram that he had passed all the tests.

And now he could wish for one thing that he wanted. So Ram immediately told, "I want only one thing and that is child labour to be abolished from this world" and then the old man said, "Okay, I will do it."The next day everything changed. Ram found that all his friends who were working in factories, shops and hotels had started to go to school.

Moral- We should never lose hope, one day we will achieve our goal.

STOPPING BY WOODS ON A SNOWY EVENING

(ஒரு பனிப்பொழியும் மாலையில் வனாந்திரத்தின் இடையே நிற்றல்)

Robert Frost

மையக்கருத்து

இந்தக்கவிதை, நான்கு அடிகளாக, நான்கு செய்யுள்கள் கொண்டதாக உள்ளது. இவற்றில், எதுகை, மோனை நயமும் அமைந்துள்ளது. ஒரு பிரயாணி, பனி பொழியும் வனத்தின் ஊடாக உள்ளே செல்லுகிறான். அவன், அந்த நேரத்தில், பனி பொழியும் அந்த அருமையான மாலை. அப்பொழுதையும், இருள் கொஞ்சம் கொஞ்சமாக அங்கு கவிழ்வதையும் காணுகிறான்.

வனாந்தர வெளியின் அழகை கவிஞர் ராபர்ட் ப்ராஸ்ட் அழகாக வருணிக்கிறார். அந்த வனத்தில் அந்தி நேரத்தில் பனி பொழிகிறது. அந்தச்சூழல் மிகவும் நிசப்தமாக உள்ளது. அந்த அமைதியில், கவிஞர் பயணிக்கும் குதிரையின் கழுத்தில் உள்ள தோல் வாரில் உள்ள மணிகள் சப்தம் எழுப்புகின்றன. இந்த முரண்பாடு கூர்ந்து நோக்கத்தக்கது. கவிஞர் கவிதையின் கடைசி செய்யுளில், சொல்லும்

''' நான் உறங்கும் முன் பல மைல்கள் செல்ல வேண்டும்.

நான் உறங்கும் முன் பல மைல்கள் செல்ல வேண்டும். "

- என்ற வரிகளுக்கு இரண்டு பொருள் சொல்லப்படுகிறது.
- நான் இன்னும் பல மைல் தூரம் பயணம் செல்ல வேண்டியுள்ளது.
- 'உறங்குதல்' என்பது மரணத்தைக் குறிக்கிறது. எனவே, நான் இறக்கும் முன்பாக செய்ய வேண்டிய செயல்கள் ஏராளம் உள்ளன என்றும் அர்த்தம் கொள்ளலாம்.

C. Complete the summary of the poem by filling in the blanks. (TB-20)

After a long travel the poet entered a wood. He wondered to whom the wood is!. He realized that the owner of the wood lived in a farmhouse. He thought happy that the owner would not be able to see him stopping in his woods to watch snow fill the woods. The poet felt that the horse would think it very queer to stop near the woods as he had never done. He was actually standing between the woods and frozen lake. The time was evening. The horse indicated that the poet has made a mistake by shaking its head. The poet felt that woods are lovely, dark and deep. He suddenly realized that he had worldly life which would not allow him to stay in the woods for a long time.

- 3. What are the sounds heard by the poet? The poet hears harness bells of his horse, the sounds of sweeping wind and snow fall.
- 4. The poet is aware of two choices. What are they? What choice does he make ultimately? First one is, stay in the deep and dark woods with snow. The second one is going far in his life as the society moves him. The poet chooses the second one.

His mortar was burnt by his neighbour. He did not get angry. At last he gave a share of his wealth to his neighbour.

The wicked old man: He was naturally a wicked and stingy. He killed his neighbour's dog without his knowledge. He burnt his neighbour's mortar deliberately. These incidents showed he was cruel. At last he copied his neighbour's act of spraying ashes upon the withering plants and trees. His work failed due to his fakeness. So the prince punished him.

OTHER EXERCISES:

Read the passage and answer the questions: Exercise-1:

The dog, however, who up to that time had received nothing but cuffs and kicks from his hosts, would not eat any of the dainties which they set before him; so, the old people began to get cross, and, putting a rope around the dog's neck, led him out into the garden. But it was all in vain; let them lead him where they might, not a sound would the dog utter; he had no "bowwow" for them. At last, however, the dog stopped at a certain spot, and began to sniff. So, thinking that this must surely be the lucky place, they dug, and found nothing but a quantity of dirt and nasty offal, over which they had to hold their noses. Furious at being disappointed, the wicked old couple seized the dog, and killed him.

Questions:

- i) Who were the hosts?
- ii) Why did they provide the dog with dainties?
- iii) Did the dog utter any sound?
- iv) What did the wicked couple receive?
- v) What did the couple do with the dog?

Answers:

- i) The wicked couple were the hosts.
- ii) They provided the dainties to the dog hoping that he would show them a place with plenty of money.
- iii) No, the dog did not utter any sound.
- iv) They found nothing but a quantity of dirty and nasty offal.
- V) They seized the dog and killed him.

Exercise-2:

That night, when the good old man was fast asleep in bed, the dog appeared to him, and, after thanking him for all his kindness, said— "Cause the pine-tree, under which, I am buried, to be cut down and made into a mortar, and use it, thinking of it as if it were myself." The old man did as the dog had told him to do, and made a mortar out of the wood of the pine-tree; but when he ground his rice in it, each grain of rice turned into some rich treasure. When the wicked old couple saw this, they came to borrow the mortar; but no sooner did they try to use it, all their rice turned into filth; so, in a fit of rage, they broke the mortar and burnt it. But the good old man, little suspecting that his precious mortar had been broken and burnt, wondered why his neighbours did not bring it back to him.

Questions:

- i) Where did the dog appear?
- ii) What was he thankful for?
- iii) What did the dog ask the old man to do?
- iv) How did each grain of rice turn into?
- v) Did the good old man suspect the wicked couple?

Answers:

- i) The dog appeared in the good old man's dream.
- ii) He was thankful for good old man's kindness.
- iii) The dog asked the old man to cut the pine tree under which he was buried and make it into a mortar.
- iv) The grain of each rice turned into some rich treasure.
- v) No, the good old man did not suspect him. He wondered why they had not brought the mortar back to him.

Exercise-3:

Having obtained these, he returned home, and made a trial of their virtues upon a withered cherry-tree, which, upon being touched by the ashes, immediately began to sprout and blossom. When he saw this wonderful effect, he put the ashes into a basket, and went about the country, announcing himself as an old man who had the power of bringing dead trees to life again. A certain prince, hearing of this, and thinking it a mighty strange thing, sent for the old fellow, who showed his power by causing all the withered plum and cherry- trees to shoot out and put forth flowers. So, the prince gave him a rich reward of pieces of silk and cloth and other presents, and sent him home rejoicing.
